LIGHTS EVERY NIGHT

At Akron Theatres Next Week---Good Shows Are Coming.

The Jacobs stock Co. will conclude a successful week at the Colonial theatre tonight, presenting "Jesse James." Popular prices.

At the Grand tonight "The Road to Ruin," one of the strongest plays seen at the Grand this season, will close its engagement. The curtain will rise promptly at 7:45 tonight, to enable the show to be given without cutting, in time to allow the company to get a train for Chicago, where it opens Sunday afternoon.

The Sawtelle Dramatic Co., which is to be at the Colonial theatre all next week, will offer some vaudeville features that will prove a strong drawing card. Among the artists in this line are Bruns and Nina, wonderful paper tapers; the Van Cooks in clever musical specialties; "Little Cookie," a juvenile wonder, and Mlle. Nina in beautiful electrical dances. This is the best line of specialties that have been seen here with a repertoire company, and will prove an enjoyable feature. The prices for the engagement will be 10,

"The Man Who Dared" with the author and romantic star, Mr. Howard Hall, in the leading role, will appear at the Grand opera house three nights and daily matinees, commencing Monday, Oct. 20. The play is a spectacular romantic melodrama in five acts, filled with excitement, deeds of heroism, some wickedness and plenty of what in the magazines they call local

FILLIUS IS POPULAR.

If Not, Then All His Political Opponents Must Have Been "Wooden Men."

The Beacon Journal declares that it is all wrong to say that Mr. E. L. Fillius, Democratic candidate for sheriff, is a popular man. It even goes so far as to say that a wooden man could have won out against the Republican candidate for Mayor at Hudson last spring. The object of the Beacon in saying so mean a thing about Mr. Geo. F. Denman, of Hudson, is not apparent. However, the fact that Mr. Fillius, a Democrat, was elected Mayor by a fine majority in a town that always sided itself upon its stolid stand by the G. O. P., is yet taken by the people of the county as an indication of popularity. Mr. Denman's friends say that the Beacon's remark that a wooden man could have defeated him was as uncalled for as it is unjust.

Shoving this incident aside, let the people consider the vote given Mr. Fillius, while he was a candidate in 1897 against Mr. Chas. Hatch, at present superintendent of the Northern division of the canal. Mr. Fillius won out for County Commissioner by a ma-majority of nearly 200 votes. The Republicans claim to have a much larger vote in the county than the Democrats, and if such is the case, would Mr. Fillius' running ahead of his ticket and overcoming the Republican majority not indicate that he is a popular man? Or will the Beacon have the temerity to come out and say of Mr. Hatch, as it did of Mr. Denman, that a wooden man could have defeated him?

In 1900, during a presidential campaign, Mr. Fillius was a candidate for re-election to the office of County Commissioner. His opponent was Mr. Eber Hawkins, of Richfield, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of his community. The people were pleased with the record of Mr. Fillius as Commissioner, and, although the odds were greatly against the Democrats that fall, he ran far ahead of his ticket. The plurality of Mr. Hawkins was smaller than that of any of the other Republican candidates. He defeated Mr. Fillius by only 700 votes, while Treasurer H. E. Berger, Republican, had a plurality of over 2,000. Of course, the figures varied greatly that fall, and Treasurer Berger, who was running for his second term, had a splendid record behind him. This would seem to indicate again that Mr. Fillius is a good one to "stand pat" on, unless the Beacon points out that a wooden man could also have run ahead of his ticket against Mr. Hawkins. In Mr. Hawkins' own township, Richfield, Mr. Fillius reduced the Republican majority. McKinley received 214 votes in that township, and Bryan had only 51. Mr. Hawkins' vote was 177, and that of Mr. Fillius 93.

It can be shown by figures in every campaign in which Mr. Fillius was a candidate that he is popular. If such is not the case, then, as the Beacon concludes in the case of Mr. Denman, all of his opponents during contests must have been wooden men. The people, however, don't believe it. They are willing to accept Mr. Fillius' record as indicating that he is popular. And the result of Nov. 4 will show the wisdom of their conclusion. Three cheers for Mr. Fillius!

BURGLARS

Removed Valuable Goods From a Summer Cottage.

(Special Correspondence.) Richfield, Oct. 18.—Since the death of Miss Ann Clark, Richfield has been without a bakery. There will be a public sale of her goods Oct. 30. Mr. Arthur Merton and family and Mr. William Sapsford and wife are making sales of their personal property, after which they will remove to Alabama.

Mr. Lawrence, who drives the hack, and carries mail, between Richfield and Peninsula, is trying to find a man to take the business of his hands. He wishes to go to Buffalo to live. He has a brother there.

Mr. Brush's summer cottage was entered a few nights ago and considerable valuable property taken, such as silverware and choice china bric-a-brac. It was entered from the rear of the cottage, through a glass door. Mr. L. E. Humphrey, who has the property in charge, has removed what was left to safer quarters, so when burglars come back, they will find an empty house.

"FREAKS

Of an Irresponsible King" Will Not Be Tolerated.

Madrid, Oct. 18.—An unguarded remark of King Alfonso's that the independent nobles of Aragon have no right to seats in parliament, has brought a hornet's nest about his majesty's head. The separatists of the province are making great capital out of the remark. They have been stirred to great activity, and are carrying on their campaign with considerable success, declaring they were "willing to obey the regent whose acts were dictated by reason, but we will never submit to the freaks of an irresponsible king."

TO CURE RHEUMATISM

You must remove the cause, which is the presence of uric acid in the blood, and to avoid delay and discouragement you should begin taking Wright's Celery Tea tonight. Drink a cupful on retiring and the poisonous matter will begin to leave your system the next day. Continue the dose every night and all trace of the trouble will soon be eradicated: the paroxysms of pain will disappear and your cure will be permanent. External application can not cure rheumatism, you must remove the cause which is internal. Wright's Celery Tea is composed of roots and herbs which purify and tone up the blood quicker and better than anything in the whole range of drugs, removes waste and poisonous matter, and creates vigor and vitality. At druggists, 25c and 50c.

THE CHILDREN ENJOY

Life out of doors and out of the games which they play and the enjoyment which they receive and the efforts which they make, comes the greater part of that healthful development which is so essential to their happiness when grown. When a laxative is needed the remedy which is given to them is cleanse and sweeten and strengthen the internal organs on which it acts, which be such as physicians would sanction, because its component parts are known to be wholesome and the remedy itself free from every objectionable quality. The one remedy which physicians and parents, well-informed, approve and recommend and which the little ones enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects, is—Syrup of Figs—and for the same reason it is the only laxative which should be used by fathers and mothers.

Syrup of Figs is the only remedy which acts gently, pleasantly and naturally without griping, irritating, or nauseating and which cleanses the system effectually, without producing that constipated habit which results from the use of the old-time cathartics and modern imitations, and against which the children should be so carefully guarded. If you would have them grow to manhood and womanhood, strong, healthy and happy, do not give them medicines, when medicines are not needed, and when nature needs assistance in the way of a laxative, give them only the simple, pleasant and gentle—Syrup of Figs.

Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative principles of plants with pleasant aromatic syrups and juices, but also to our original method of manufacture and as you value the health of the little ones, do not accept any of the substitutes which unscrupulous dealers sometimes offer to increase their profits. The genuine article may be bought anywhere of all reliable druggists at fifty cents per bottle. Please to remember, the full name of the Company—CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.—is printed on the front of every package. In order to get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine only.
